2009

RENEWAL Bulletin

Renewal Information will go to HOME ADDRESS

The 2009 notification will be mailed to the individual licensee at the home address that is currently on record with AREC. Postcards are due to be mailed around July 15, 2008.

Renew on-line

Renew your real estate license on-line. Accepted METHOD OF PAYMENT: Visa, MasterCard, Discover or eCheck.

Fee Schedule

	Before Sept. 30	After Sept. 30
Broker	$70.00	$100.00
Salesperson	$50.00	$70.00
Duplicate License	$30.00	$60.00

Active License Renewals

Renewals cannot be used to transfer, change firm name or firm address or personal name. If the licensee is changing companies, please make sure the transfer information has been mailed to AREC. All applicable forms are available on AREC's web site.

Continuing Education

Continuing education is a requirement for active renewals.

Completion of six (6) hour CE is reported electronically to the licensee's record by most education providers. For schools that do not report CE electronically, those certificates should be mailed to AREC. (Check with your education provider concerning submission of six (6) hour CE completion to AREC.)

Licenses will be placed on inactive status if no record of CE is submitted. A $30 fee will apply to activate the license.

ONLY a Cashier's Check, Money Order or Company Check will be acceptable for mail in renewals.

Renewal forms mailed to AREC will be returned if a Personal Check is attached or the form is not signed.

Expired Licenses

ALL current licenses expire December 31, 2008.

Information Line

A special information phone line will be operating during renewal that will answer most questions you may have.
